

Equality for all training

NUJ training on 'Equality for All' is available to members who wish to learn more about how to tackle equality issues in the workplace and branch: sex, race and disability discrimination plus maternity, parental leave and flexible working. Including how to deal with problems, negotiating techniques, etc.

Â The training is completely free for NUJ members and the union pays all travel and accommodation costs where appropriate.

The next two training courses:

London 12 and 13 January 2007 (half day on 12th)

Manchester 27 and 28 January (half day on 28th)

To register, go to www.nujtraining.org.uk

Further courses are planned for Birmingham 3 and 4 March, and Cardiff 9 and 10 June.Â
